In line with these purposes the information used is health data and classified as special category data in data protection law. It is also subject to a common law duty of confidentiality.

There are therefore defined processing conditions that allow the use of this and those applicable to the use of this information by Hedia ApS are set out below.

Under data protection law the following lawful bases apply to the processing of personal data:

- GDPR Article 6(1)(e) – ‘processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest...’
 - For the processing of personal data by Hedia ApS which enables or supports the delivery of diabetes services

Under data protection law the following lawful bases apply to the processing of special categories of personal data:

- GDPR Article 9(2)(h) – ‘processing is necessary for preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems'

- For the processing of special category personal data by Hedia ApS which enables or supports the delivery of care services

For users in the UK, the following lawful bases under the common law duty of confidentiality apply:

- The data subject has consented to the services and the sharing of their data for the purposes of ascertaining the service.

3. Source and recipients of personal data

Hedia ApS collects personal data directly from service users that agree to use the service and providers of Health and Social Care services

We will not ordinarily or routinely share any of your personal data with any third-party unless we have a lawful reason for doing so.

We may share aggregated (anonymised) data with our commercial partners in support of the service.

4. Keeping your data secure

We will use a combination of technical and organisational measures to safeguard your personal data retained within the HDA, for example: we store your personal data on secure encrypted servers. We also expect you to keep your data secure should you choose to export or transfer it, as mentioned in section 7 of our terms and conditions.

While we will use all reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal data, you acknowledge that the use of the internet is not entirely secure and for this reason we cannot guarantee the security or integrity of any personal data that is transferred from you or to you via the internet

5. International Transfer

Data will be stored within the EEA and the European Economic Area ("the EEA"). (The EEA consists of all EU member states, plus Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein).

6. Retention

We retain your personal data in accordance with EU and UK national retention guidelines in our server logs, our databases, and our records for as long as is necessary to provide our services to you.

We may need to retain some of your information for a longer period, such as in back-up records, or in order to comply with our legal or regulatory obligations, to resolve disputes or defend against legal claims.

Where we anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

7. Automated decision-making or profiling

We do not undertake any automated decision-making or profiling in relation to your personal data.

8. Your Rights

Under data protection law, you the following rights to your information:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

In order to take up any of these rights you should contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing: hedia@8foldgovernance.com

9. Data Protection Officer

Under data protection law Hedia ApS are required to have a Data Protection Officer (DPO).

Hedia ApS's Data Protection Officer is 8fold Governance Ltd and you can contact them by emailing: hedia@8foldgovernance.com

10. Links to other websites

Our website and App may contain links to other websites. This privacy notice applies only to our website and App (www.hedia.com) so when you visit other websites please read their privacy notices, as we cannot accept any responsibility for breaches or issues you may have in relation to data privacy once you leave our site.

11. How to make a complaint

We encourage you to contact us at hedia@8foldgovernance.com if you think that any collection or use of your personal data by us is unfair, misleading or inappropriate. If you make a complaint to us and think we have not dealt with it to your satisfaction, you have the right to make a complaint to your local supervisory authority. For UK data subjects the supervisory authority is here, for EU data subjects, a full list of EU supervisory authorities is available here.

12. Changes to the Privacy Notice

We keep our privacy notice under regular review. If we change our privacy policy we will post the changes on this page, so that you may be aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times.
